

Warriors Lace Annandale

Wakefield's baseball team continued its sudden hitting spree by clobbering a helpless Annandale 22-1 yesterday afternoon on the losers' diamond.

Coach Mort Irwin's Warriors, fresh from a 14-1 triumph over St. Stephen's last Friday, blasted out a 17-hit attack as Wakefield hurler Bob Stauffer, making his first appearance of the year, held the Annandale lads to eight hits and one run.

Wakefield might have crushed Annandale by an even fatter margin had not the game been called because of rain in the top of the ninth after the Warriors loaded the bases with only one out.

With two down in the top of the first inning, the Warriors got down to business when Doc Kugler got on base on an error and scored on Ken Darling's double to left field.

Henry Mayo lifted a home run over the center fielder's head to score Darling and give the Warriors a 3-0 lead.

After blanking Annandale in the home half of the first, Wakefield exploded with four more runs in the second inning.

Ricky Schlapkohl started the Warriors off with a base hit to right, but was forced out at second a moment later on Dan Breeden's grounder. Pitcher Bob Stauffer got on base on a fielder's choice before Joe Morris doubled to right field to drive in Breeden.

With Bob Stauffer on third, Don Baldwin hit a sacrifice fly to center field, allowing the Warrior pitcher to tag up and score after the catch.

Doc Kugler kept the Warriors rolling by beating out an infield hit. Ken Darling followed with a single to right which knocked across Morris and Kugler.

After yielding a run to Annandale in the bottom half of the fourth inning on an error and bad throw to first, which eventually allowed a run to score, the Warriors added two more tallies in the fifth.

Henry Mayo, enjoying the best day at the plate he has seen all year, got a single and scored a moment later on Frank Stevens' double to centerfield.

Ricky Schlapkohl walloped a single into center to score Stevens and Frank Breeden followed by lashing out a double, but Bob Rauserman grounded out to retire the side.

Joe Morris led off the Warriors' sixth with a single, stole second, and Ken Darling drew a base on balls. Mayo rapped out another base hit to score Morris and Darling came in on an error at third base.

Wakefield poured on seven more runs in the top of the seventh inning after one out.

Pitcher Bob Stauffer walked, Joe Morris flied out to deep right field, and Don Baldwin beat out a bunt to put runners on first and second.

Doc Kugler hit to left scoring Morris, Darling drew a walk, and Mayo singled across Stauffer and Baldwin. Frank Stevens lashed out a single to score Darling and Mayo.

Ricky Schlapkohl walked, Frank Breeden got safely to first base when his grounder to second was bobbled, which scored Stevens, and Stauffer was hit by a pitched ball.

Ricky Schlapkohl crossed the plate a moment later when Joe Morris' grounder was muffed at the same vulnerable second base spot.

Wakefield's lads rolled merrily on in the eighth inning, scoring four more runs when Henry Mayo collected his fifth hit of the afternoon by smashing a double into center field which brought home Doc Kugler and Al Bauserman, who had walked to start the inning.

Frank Stevens wheedled another base on balls, and both he and Mayo scored a moment later when Ricky Schlapkohl drilled a single into center field.

After Wakefield loaded the bags with only one down in the ninth, the rain did what Annandale couldn't do — halt the Warriors.
